

GREEN PARTY

Hand-blown from recycled glass at Esque's wind-powered workshop in Portland, Ore., the double peaks of this punch bowl display extraordinary glass-blowing skill, $840. At Esque. Go to www.esquedesign.com.

CAMO FLAME

The portable Bucket Grill by Sagaform brings clean Scandinavian design to summer picnicking, $35. At Broadway Panhandler. Go to www.broadwaypanhandler.com.

GENTLY SKEWERED

At last, a skewer with a place at a well-set table. The Baroque Skewer is designed by Luki Huber for the El Bulli Collection, $50 for a set of four. At Le Sanctuaire. Go to www.le-sanctuaire.com.

The New Collectibles
TO HAVE AND TO HOLD ON TO.
OLIVER SCHWANER-ALBRIGHT REPORTS.

THE BIG CHILL

The Le Bon Vivant mahogany table by 30E design has a stainless-steel trough that can hold the most convivial centerpiece of all: a case of Champagne, $5,500 for the table. At Le Dü's Wines. Call (212) 924-6999. Filled with Dom Pérignon Oenothèque, $195 each. Go to www.sherry-lehmann.com.

THIN-SKINNED

Made with porcelain and dipped in platinum, the Thirsty by Tsé & Tsé is more chalice than glass, $135 for two. At MC & Company. Call (718) 388-3551.